

THE DAY THAT MADE A SYSADMIN INTO A SUDOCHAMP!

Awarded the title of "The Worlds most underappreciated worker"

SOME TALK-OTHERS SUDO

LEAVE WITH THIS AWE-INSPIRING T-SHIRT IN YOUR SIZE!

You've EARNED OUR respect! COME PARTY with people just like you at Datayard's SYSADMIN Day Celebration.

The person who said there are no stupid questions, obviously hadn't encountered the technological luddites you deal with every day. You, the SYSADMIN, do battle with the great unschooled masses, trying to save your company from dreaded ID10T errors created by those who think they understand computing because they set up their own iPhone.

The Secret of Triumphant Over NOOBS

The answer isn't beer. (Except on SYSADMIN day). Yes, Google is your friend, but so is the time tested tools of perseverance, aptitude, and a never-say-never approach to problems big and small. From simple password resets, to massive remaps of network nodes, you toil daily to make sure that when the captains of industry try to misdirect the ship, it won't sink.

One day a year, SYSADMIN Appreciation day, are you allowed to jump out of your cubicle, and accept the praises due for a job well done.

This July 29, you are invited to join others who practice your arcane but never mundane craft, as guest of DATAYARD at our celebration of your craft and trade.

Please join us, by following the simple instructions at left [you're a SYSADMIN, we know you've got this]
